In another considerable success in the renewed war for Palestine the Jews captured Lydda and its airport the largest in the country

Clare Boothe Luce Back In Philadelphia To See Democratic Convention

This is the first of a series of daily articles on the Democratic national convention in Philadelphia, written by Clare Boothe Luce, noted author and playwright

* * *

By CLARE BOOTHE LUCE

PHILADELPHIA, July 12—According to White House aides President Truman will board his special plane the Independence with the first lady and their daughter Margaret, and fly to the convention the minute—but the very minute—he is nominated

And that, my dear readers, is about the most exciting rumor circulating in the City of Brotherly Love today

The great convention assembling here to pick the next defeated candidate for the presidency of what convention orators sometimes call "tha yuni-nexxtaxe Amurica," promises no surprises. With the collapse of the Eisenhower boom, all hands are busied with a strenuous, last-minute spit-and-polish job on party unity. Not even the vice presidency is a matter for real speculation What excitement there is lies in a certain morbid fascination all seem to feel as they watch the growing list of distinguished Democratic namies that passionately aspire to private life, and feal no patriotic urge whatsoever to be the President's running mate—or even the president

Clare Boothe Luce

To be sure, at seven o'clock this evening, General Eisenhower's one-time mess sergeant mounted on the back of an Army jeep was still pouring his heart out into a loud-speaker begging the convention to draft "the boss." The jeep was parked by the entrance of the Bellevue-Stratford On the marquee over the sergeant's head the brash papier-mache Democratic donkey soundlessly shook his heavy head, and flashed a baleful neon eye at the sergeant What' All this and Eisenhower too'" he seemed to be saying If hee-haw there was, it was coming from the sergeant's adjutant general, who is a man of his word, not to say of vision he wants no part of the Democratic party in this year of its decline and fall

The apathetic crowd listened to the sergeant with the same wistful and yet cynical expressions that you see on the faces of city crowds when some soap-box orator promises them the millenium—if only they'll "take action."

Grim Justice

On lamp posts near all the big hotels are placards plugging Justice Bill Douglas for the presidency But even the campaign picture chosen by his admirers manages to look as grim remote and disinterested as he really is in the vice presidency This time, anyway

Nowhere did I see any picture of Mrs Roosevelt This is a most significant fact, when you come to think of it.

Ten days ago, I suggested that Mrs Roosevelt was the only personality available as vice-president who could either hold, or get back, the votes that have steadily flowed away from the Democratic party since the death of Mr. Roosevelt. Later, in a White House conference, Mr Truman said he had no objection to this somewhat obvious suggestion.

He then added, rather plaintively—and who could blame him in the circumstances—what else could he be expected to say"

Well, he might have said for example, that he was "all for it." Such a statement would have clinced the vice-presidential nomination for the widow of his late commnder-in-chief.

It is a well-known fact that a president can generally pick his own running mate, however unpopular that choice might be with some element of the party It is always easy for the president to overcome all objections, especially if he can prove that the candidate would bring votes to the party This Mr Truman could easily have proven in the case of Mrs Roosevelt And surely, only the southerners could object to Mrs. Roosevelt—and after all, they are such gentlemen.

Two Explanations

If Mr Truman didn't insist on Mrs. Roosevelt, there are only two possible explanations He doesn't want her on the ticket, or he does want her, and can't get her

All the political evidence points to the latter supposition. It has

BANGOR, Me., July 12—Pointed for troubled Germany in the air forces first jet-propelled trans-Atlantic flight, a group of F-80 Shooting Stars roared into Dow Air base today from Selfridge Field, Mich.

First of the 15 pioneering jets came in at 11 06 EST Others quickly followed The first plane to take off from Selfridge left there at 9 06 a m

Arrival here of the jets on the first leg of what USAF describes as a training and study flight coincided with London reports that Britain had sent considerable numbers of new troops to western Germany because of Berlin's Soviet blockade tension.

As the American planes flew eastward six Royal Air Force jet Vampire fighters landed at Reykjavik, Iceland, after swift flights from Stornoway, Scotland. They are bound for Montreal and New York on the first east-west crossing.

The 15 American jets were fully armed

A two-hour layover here of the group before the next hop to Labrador was planned

In four separate formations, the F-80 Shooting Stars streaked eastward across a hazy sky from Selfridge.

Sixteen specially groomed planes were scheduled to make the trip but one failed to start up The pioneer flight will test long range jet operation

REPORT CIVIL RIGHTS PLANK BID FOR UNITY

Platform Framers Said To Be Striving To Prevent Convention Fight.

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 12 — Democratic platform framers were reported today to have drawn a preliminary civil rights plank bidding for party unity through a revival of the 1944 race stand

But there were no immediate signs whether the proposed compromise can stop a convention floor fight—between southerners and self-styled "liberals" — that could determine whether the Democrats will be one party or two in November

The tentative platform draft, drawn by a seven-man subcommittee and yet to be approved by the 108-member full platform committee and by the convention, was held in secrecy

Reported Race Plank

But one source said this language was presented by the seven-member platform writing group for the race plank.

"The Democratic party and the Democratic administration are solely responsible for the great gains in recent years made in the continuing effort to reduce and eliminate unfair and illegal discrimination based on race, or creed or color.

"We have implemented our often expressed belief that racial and religious minorities have the right to live, develop and vote equally with all citizens, and to share the right guaranteed by the Constitution.

"We again call on congress to exert its full authority to the limits of those constitutional powers to protect these rights."

Southerners were said to have lost their fight in the preliminary drafting group for a states' right plank. Previously Democratic Chairman J Howard McGrath said the administration might be willing to go along on such a plank if it did not "nullify" the civil rights proposal.

Strive for Agreement

Chauncey Sparks, former Alabama governor and member of the seven-member drafting group, told a reporter

"Efforts are being made now to get the extremists on both sides to agree, without a floor fight If we can't get such an agreement we might have to make some revisions"

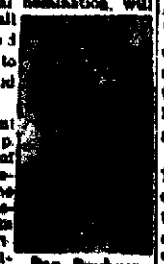
Convention's Top Jobs Go To the South

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 12—Two old political warriors from the South will handle the two top jobs at the Democratic national convention

As keynote speaker for the third time Sen Alben W Barkley of Kentucky, prominently mentioned among those considered for the vice presidential nomination, will sound the call for all good Democrats to come to the aid of their party.



Rep. Rayburn

As permanent chairman, Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas will preside when the convention transacts as its main business — drafting a party platform and selecting presidential and vice presidential nominees.

The choosing of Barkley and Rayburn has been interpreted as an effort to soften southern hostility to President Truman on the civil rights issue Both are seasoned party peacemakers as well as longtime battlers against the Republicans.

Both have been in congress 36 years—since the first inauguration of Woodrow Wilson. Barkley has been senate Democratic leader for 11 years. Rayburn has been the leader of the house Democrats for 12 years.

Sen. Barkley

In his younger days Barkley had the reputation of being an orator-al "iron man." He could make a dozen campaign speeches in a day and be fresh at the finish.

At 70 he is still going strong. Last fall he was hurt in an auto accident while campaigning for state candidates in Kentucky. He didn't find out that a rib was broken until three weeks later. In the meantime he had made 40 speeches.

Sen Barkley has attended Democratic national conventions since 1920 He was keynoter in 1932 and 1938 and was permanent chairman of the 1940 convention which nominated Franklin Roosevelt for his third term.

The soft-spoken 69-year-old Rayburn should slide easily into the chairman's chair at the convention. He was speaker of the house during the war years and was recognized as a smooth parliamentarian. He learned legislative tactics from the old political maestro, former Vice President John N. Garner

* * *

A third important post at the convention will be held by a comparative newcomer to national politics.

Sen. McGrath

Sen J. Howard McGrath, chairman of the Democratic national committee, called the convention to order and will preside until Keynoter Barkley goes into oratorical action.

McGrath, a hustling business-like politician, has been a senator less than two years and national chairman since last October. He served three terms as governor of Rhode Island.

* * *

As chairman of the Resolutions Committee, Pennsylvania's senator, Francis J Myers, will have one of the more important assignments at the convention. The resolutions committee draws up the platform which outlines the party's stand and program of action on issues such as foreign affairs, high cost of living, housing, labor and farm problems.

Sen. Myers

Sen. Myers, 66, was a representative for six years before election to the senate in 1944. He was a strong Roosevelt man and has urged renomination of President Truman. A lawyer and even-tempered politician, he will handle the touchy question of a platform plank on civil rights. In Philadelphia he will be working on his home grounds.

DOUGLAS OUT AS CANDIDATE FOR 2ND SPOT

Barkley Forges Ahead as Court Justice Declines To Make Race.

By The Associated Press

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, July 12—Justice William O. Douglas stepped out of the vice presidential picture and Senator Alben Barkley came to the front today as the thirtieth Democratic national convention got under way at 11 13 a. m.

Douglas, tapped as President Truman's first choice, declined to quit the supreme court and make the race. His decision was announced by John Redding, Democratic publicity chief Redding said he regards the word from Douglas, which came through friends, as an "absolute refusal."

With delegates assembled for the convention's first session, word circulated around the hall and in downtown committee headquarters that Barkley may get the administration's call on a ticket certain to be topped by President Truman.

Southern delegates who had been planning a fight against Douglas, if he chose to run, generally resented favorably to reports that Barkley now might be the choice.

Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) told a reporter he thinks most of the Dixie delegations rebelling against Truman's civil rights program would go along on Barkley.

Little Enthusiasm

There was less enthusiasm among the southerners, however, about reports from some administration sources that the president favor might be turned toward Gov. William Preston Lane of Maryland.

Delegates generally agreed that President Truman can have whomever he wants for his running mate.

The question was whether southerners would fight over the second place as they have over the presidential nomination by advancing Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas to oppose Truman.

Platform fireworks were in sight, too.

There were authentic reports that a preliminary drafting group had written into the platform a statement similar to the party's 1944 generalized espousal of racial equality

But the southerners were said to have lost their fight for inclusion, as another point in the platform, of a state's rights declaration.

Die-hard critics of the President are determined he shall not have the nomination without a gesture of opposition on the convention floor.

Dixie rebels settled on Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas as the man they will back. And Senator Claude Pepper of Florida declared himself a candidate.

Ready To Walk

At least part of Alabama's delegation was ready to walk out if Truman is nominated or if the platform doesn't please them. This group won control of the delegation in a pre-session caucus.

But California, where there was much anti-Truman sentiment last week, was lining up behind the President.

It voted 42 to 12 to support him on the first ballot.

While Laney and Barkley were getting most talk as vice presidential possibilities, Redding said he considers the race "wide open."

Perhaps Barkley is the leading possibility, he said

Pepper and Laney were entered as presidential candidates last night.

Southerners, making an admittedly hopeless fight in this case, lined up behind Laney A committee named by a rebel caucus yesterday for that task called on advocates of states' rights to rally behind the Arkansas governor.

A few hours earlier, Senator Claude Pepper of Florida had made a belated and almost single-handed entry into the race against Mr Truman. Pepper took over the physical properties—but few of the supporters—of the boom for Gen. Dwight D Eisenhower.

Speech-Making Today

The convention itself offered a day of speech-making as the main attraction in a hall where the Republicans last month picked Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Gov. Earl Warren of California for their ticket.

Lawrence said in a prepared address opening the meeting that Joseph Grundy, former head of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' association, had dominated the Republican platform.

Senator Francis J. Myers of Pennsylvania, welcoming the delegates, called for U. S. [illegible] the Democrats [illegible] he told the Democrats, who go in November with Republican [illegible] ords.

He said the party [illegible]

INDIAN GRIST MILL MAY BECOME SHRINE

UPPER SANDUSKY, July 10—Indian Mill, historic landmark near Upper Sandusky and the subject of the Ohio Story broadcast last week, may be preserved and opened to the public as a state park if approved by the Ohio legislature.

Sponsors of the project are the Wyandot County Historical society; State Director of Commerce Fred J. Milligan of Columbus, Arthur C. Johnson, president of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical society, and Frederick K. Cassel of Carey, state representative from Wyandot county. Mr. Cassel is planning to introduce a bill for the purpose of converting the mill and its grounds into a state park at the next regular session of the general assembly.

Located five miles northeast of here on the Sandusky river, the mill and grounds are now the property of Ward Walton Walton has offered to present the mill and grounds to the state for a historic shrine free of any charge and subject only to the provision that the dam and reservoir be limited in height and level to its present elevation.

The mill was built in 1820 by the federal government for the Wyandot Indians then living on a reservation The agreement to furnish them with a grist mill was a portion of a treaty made here to establish a reservation for the Wyandots, last of the Indians to remain in Ohio.

At Democratic Convention

In Plain Words

By James Marlow

PHILADELPHIA

THE Democratic convention to pick a presidential candidate is a dreary affair

Nobody here seriously doubts that President Truman is a cinch to get the nomination With that, apparently so cut and dried, half the steam is out of the convention

Three weeks ago the Republicans drenched this city with enthusiasm while they still were in the process of picking one of a number of candidates

James Marlow

They whooped and hollered and made deals and they jammed the hotel lobbies The Democrats seem almost lonely by comparison

True Senator Claude Pepper Florida Democrat, threw his hat into the ring last night and jumped in after it

True, too, that a flock of southern delegates were getting ready to put up Gov Ben T Laney of Arkansas as their own candidate to oppose Mr Truman

But Pepper's sudden announcement that he was seeking the presidential nomination left this city and the delegates pretty cold

And the other southerners burned up by Mr Truman's civil rights program—had been talking for quite a while of doing what they did. So it was no great surprise

Already, it seems to me politicians in Mr Truman's own party have done him terrific damage before the presidential campaign gets under way.

IN THE PAST WEEK some of the top Democrats talked of nominating Gen Ike Eisenhower —until Eisenhower said "no, thanks."

Bosses of some of the biggest political machines in the United States — like ex-Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City— were behind the draft-Eisenhower boom

This now becomes an interesting question:

How are those political leaders, who were all for Eisenhower, going to do an about-face with the voters in their areas and start bleeding for Truman?

Mr Truman can understand this He got his political start from one of the most successful machines in the United States, Boss Pendergast's in Kansas City

SO IT MUST SEEM strange to him, knowing how much close political cooperation means among big city politicians, to see such people as Hague turn against him and then do a flip-flop back again

Mr Truman says he feels very chipper about his chances for reelection If the delegates here think they're backing a winner, they're pretty quiet about it

This is not intended as a particularly gloomy note about the Democrats and their chances in November. But it seems to me to be an accurate portrayal of the situation

The Republicans, who have control of congress know this is their best chance to win the presidency since Franklin D Roosevelt whipped them down in 1932

Roosevelt is dead and gone There is no sure and persuasive hand running this convention and guiding as it gets under way

The convention opened today with the usual speeches It probably will be over Thursday with the nomination of Mr Truman and the selection of his vice presidential running mate

MARION BUSINESS CONDITIONS IMPROVE

Business conditions in Marion and the county area improved during June according to comparison with figures for the previous month and for a year ago as listed in the Marion Chamber of Commerce monthly report on business factors.

Bank debits of more than 33 million dollars in June constituted a gain of nearly a million over May figures and more than five millions over June 1947.

Increased volume of business was seen in a county prepaid sales tax total of $373,000 to date for 1948 as against $312,827 this time a year ago.

Postal receipts of nearly $36,000 for June were up more than $5,000 over June 1947. Other increases indicating a general upward trend in business as compared to this time last year were seen in the number of installations of water meters, telephones and electric meters.

New car sales although less than the figure for June, 1947, showed a gain over May while sales of used cars was up nearly one third over June 1947.

Employment figures in the industrial and commercial-service groups gained by a total of 13 over May but still are under June 1947 figures by a total of 485.

A decrease in commercial-service employes during June was offset by a proportionately larger increase in industrial employment. Employment totals in the three categories are as follows: June 1947, 14,670; May 1948, 14,162 and June 1948, 14,175.

Three new members were welcomed in the Chamber group of business concerns during the month, according to the news bulletin. They are C. L. Pierson of the Marion Electric Motor Service, Carl E. Scott, of Scotty's Place and Clinton O. Willey of Willey's Electric company.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Improper Nutrition and Heart Ills.

TIME after time I have stressed the value of good nutrition — the importance to health of all the vitamins, minerals, right kinds of proteins, and other food elements found in a well-balanced diet. And if these things are necessary in sufficient quantity to maintain health, they are doubly needed in regaining it after it has been impaired by illness. Thus, nothing is more important in the treatment of any patient than the keeping up of his nutrition.

Protein of worn-out tissues and for tissue growth, is demanded in illness because it speeds up the healing of tissue damaged by injury or disease. Vitamin C is also necessary for wound healing and scar tissue formation.

Because of these facts, Dr. Ralph W. Trimmer and Dr. Clayton J. Lundy made a study of over 550 patients during a six-year period. From this group, 123 patients were selected who had heart disease. About one-fifth were suffering from coronary thrombosis, a condition in which blocking of the flow of blood through the coronary arteries results in damage to tissue of the heart itself.

The painstaking study of these patients included a determination of the amount of protein in the blood as well as the amount of vitamin C present. It is interesting to note that about one-fourth of the patients who had heart disease due to some condition other than coronary thrombosis had a deficiency of both vitamin C and protein in the blood while two-thirds of those with coronary thrombosis showed low blood levels of these important food substances. Thus, many patients with heart disease seem to suffer from a nutritional deficiency, and it might even be concluded that improper nutrition plays some role in producing heart trouble.

Protein is supplied by such foods as meat, milk, and eggs, as well as whole-grain cereals. Vitamin C is supplied principally by citrus fruits and tomatoes. Of course, it is possible to get vitamin C in a concentrated form, that is, tablets of ascorbic acid.

It would seem important in cases of heart disease that an effort be made to supply the patients with large amounts of the right kind of protein in the diet and that vitamin C also be administered. This is particularly important in patients suffering from coronary thrombosis in order that repair of damaged heart tissue may be speeded. The right kinds of proteins are those that supply the ten amino acids which cannot be made in the body.

Of course all other necessary food parts should be supplied by giving a well balanced diet. The physician will determine just what diet should be followed. In some instances it might be necessary to supplement natural foods by giving protein hydrolysates which are mixtures of amino acids made from proteins. The physician will also decide which of these preparations should be employed and how they should be administered.

Questions and Answers

D D D — I have been bothered with itching skin for several years. There is no rash. What can be done for this?

Answer — The first thing to do is to find the cause of the itching. Among the local causes are excessive dryness of the skin. Among the general causes are such serious diseases as diabetes, leukemia, and Hodgkin's disease. It is suggested that you have your doctor determine the cause in your case.

You should drink plenty of water and keep the bowels open. Bathing in soapy water should be avoided. The use of salve or plain grease, such as cold cream, is soothing and drugs, such as pilocarpine and bromides, have been found of value.

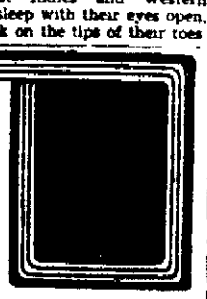
More For Your Money In Funeral Service . . .



Many patrons express wonder that the Hughes Funeral Home can provide real air conditioning, the Everett organ and other equally fine equipment—and yet charge such reasonable prices for funerals.

There are several reasons why this is possible. One is the fact that we never have sought to charge all the traffic would bear. Another is the savings that come through careful, personal management. A third—and equally important—is increasing patronage. Larger volume of business can lower cost in funeral service just as it can in any other kind of business.

The heads of families in Marion and vicinity are welcome to come and investigate. Our prices are plainly marked and open for anyone to see.

TWO HEADLINERS are better than one!

NO doubt about it—the tires on your car have a lot to do with its comfort, and the new oversize casings deserve all the headline play they're getting.

But if you like to take things easy as you drive, why be content with one such headliner, when Buick gives you riding comfort in a double dose?

For instance, every 1948 Buick rides on lower-than-usual air pressures. That comes not only from the tire sizes, but from the fact that Buick wheels have the widest rims in the industry.

Wider rims increase tire air capacity. They also straighten sidewalls, giving them a bracing action against side thrust and sway.

Result: Comfort plus control—a soft ride and surer handling—in every Buick in our '48 line.

On top of that, every Buick has a soft coil spring on each wheel to back up the cushioning action of the tires.

Each wheel is prepared to step over bumps as they come, front and rear springs are precisely balanced with each other, and both front- and rear-seat passengers enjoy a level, jounce-free ride.

On such springing alone this sprightly fashion plate of '48 would be noted for its easy-going stride.

But we figure that two headline features are always better than one, so every Buick enjoys both gentler springing and lower-pressure tires.

Go try out a Buick and see for yourself what we mean. If you haven't done so already, you'll see your Buick dealer pronto, with or without a car to trade—and get a firm order in.

The Widest Rims in the Industry

Compare Buick rims with those on other cars of the same size and weight, and you'll find that Buick's are wider—why? Because wider rims increase air space and permit lower air pressures. They also give sidewalls an extra bracing outline that checks sidesway. The result is a softer ride, plus better car control.

BUICK alone has all these features

At Democratic Convention

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

PHILADELPHIA

THE golden voice is gone. That was the permanent fact as the Democratic convention opened here today like a football team starting a game with four men trying to play quarterback.

The great signal caller is dead. There is no one here to say "My friends" and melt the divergent animosities of the Democratic party in the brotherhood of political loyalty.

You have to have a hero—or several heroes. And none has come here yet.

HAL BOYLE

In the opening hour of its fifth straight quadrennial bid for power the historic Democratic party is as split as the quarreling would-be heirs to a rich man's legacy.

What is missing here is the vast personality, the unifying magic of the last leader—the purple Democrat, Franklin D Roosevelt.

There is no doubt among most delegates here that the inheritor of his mantle, Harry Truman, will be nominated to lead the party.

But they are preparing to nominate him in an unhappy atmosphere of revolt over an eternal problem affecting one-tenth of the American population—the Negro citizens.

This subject outweighs in the attention of the delegates at this stage the high cost of living, the world crisis, or any other problem facing the nation.

IT OUTWEIGHS even the prospects of victory in November. In two days here I have heard no delegate even bring up the topic in an optimistic vein.

There is a great contrast between this convention and the Republican convention here last month.

The GOP gathering was featured by an exciting clash of personalities. Dewey, Taft and Stassen were present and contending vigorously for the nomination. So were a number of dark horses.

That convention was built around the competition of men. This convention so far has been an angry conflict of principles—and principles are never as colorful as people.

The Republican convention opened in an atmosphere of hope and horsetrading. The Democratic convention has started in a fog of sectional recriminations and bitterness.

THERE IS NO HERO or potential hero yet on the scene. There is little parading or open enthusiasm for the leader they know they will pick—Truman. There are more arguments than there are cheers.

This is the surface picture today as the Democrats meet to organize, after nearly 16 years in power, against a resurgent party.

And many delegates say:

"If Roosevelt were alive—"

They miss the golden voice that welded them in unity and loyalty the shining skill in smoothing over differences.

As of now the Democratic party is neither a party nor a team. The Democrats aren't fighting the Republicans. They are fighting themselves.

As an elevator operator in the headquarters hotel said:

"This isn't a convention—it's more like a wake."

But this is July. The donkey may be a different animal in November. He'll have to be to make it five in a row—something he's never done since the elephant was born.

STEEL MEN TO GET INCREASE IN WAGES

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, July 12 — A spokesman for the U S Steel Corp says that company will increase wages for its 170,000 workers "in view of a continuing climb in the cost of living."

The spokesman who asked that his name not be disclosed, said the increase will be announced this week. "The corporation is under no obligation to increase wages," he said, but feels "the workers should be protected" because of the cost of living.

Philip Murray's United Steelworkers union, a CIO affiliate which represents U S Steel workers, earlier had sought a pay boost, but the corporation rejected the bid on the ground it was seeking to halt an inflationary spiral.

The union is working under the second year of a two-year contract and under the terms of the pact wage negotiations were reopened last April.

LEGION POST PICNIC HELD

1,000 Attend Annual Bird-McGinnis Event at Lincoln Park.

A full program of games, contests, baseball and softball games provided the day's entertainment at the annual picnic and outing sponsored by Bird-McGinnis Post No 182, American Legion, yesterday at Lincoln park. Approximately 1 000 persons visited the park at various hours during the day and 200 attended the picnic supper at around 6 p m.

Voted by many as "the best picnic yet," festivities got under way at noon with the 40 et 8 box car providing transportation for many of the picnickers. Starting at 12 30 p m the box car ran between the courthouse and park on half-hour schedule, up to 5 30 p m.

Interest centered on the baseball game between the Bird-McGinnis Post Junior Legion and the Detroit Legion teams in which the local team lost to the visitors. A detailed account of the game is found on the sports page of today's Star. Later in the afternoon the Bird-McGinnis post softball team played a team from Prospect ending up on the winning side. Games and stunts were provided throughout the afternoon and evening for the children.

Following the picnic supper initiatory ceremonies were conducted for seven new members of the post, with Craig Rogers, past county commander presiding. Welcomed were Mr and Mrs Daniels W E Grimes Howard Gilbert James Thomas and Richard Haver.

All facilities of the park were made available to the picnickers. Coffee was provided by the committee and refreshments were available.

John H Moore is commander of the post and serving as general chairman for the picnic was Dr L W Kohlhorst. Heading other committees were James Thomas, entertainment, Craig Rogers, degree team, Cloyce O'Brien and John Corwin refreshments, Nelson Irvin junior baseball, W B Tway public address, Franklin Miner, legion softball; Earl Grimes, music, Richard C Burklew, transportation and Howard Cross, publicity.

POWER REPAIRS KEEP GALION PLANTS IDLE

Special to The Star

GALION, July 12—Not being able to complete repairs currently being made to the No 1 boiler at the municipal light and power plant for another week, manufacturers notified employes last Saturday that plants will not reopened until Monday, July 19. Service-Safety Director John F Porter has reported that full power resumption is expected by that time.

Major industrial plants in Galion have been closed since July 4 weekend according to a pre-arrangement between city officials and manufacturers when it was agreed that power would be curtailed during the following week and mass vacations would be given factory workers in order to make repairs to the light plant.

Work was delayed last week because of the lack of enough bricklayers. The front and side walls of the boiler were torn down.

Spitework

IF THE United Nations eventually is given full responsibility for settling international quarrels, it will need a board of psychiatrists. The X factor in war is not economics, as materialists try to prove, but the quirks and delusions of the human mind.

In the war just ended no one can deny that the insane acts of Hitler, Mussolini and the Japanese war lords were primary causes. Their obsessions and hallucinations caused them to do things which were completely irrational. The same kind of derangements can be found in the circumstances threatening to plunge the world into a new war.

The Berlin crisis is the result of Russian spitework—an attempt to get even with the Western Powers for their policy of cooperation in the parts of Germany they occupy. The Russian attitude in this and many other respects can be explained only by the abnormal psychology of the men in the Kremlin. Their attitude of non-cooperation in the society of nations, stemming from a fixation growing out of devotion to Karl Marx in the infancy of the Russian revolution, has nothing whatever to do with rational thought or action. It is different only in degree from the bellowing Mussolini's delusion that destiny had cast him in the role of a reincarnated Caesar, from Hitler's hallucinations of infallibility and from the preposession of the Japanese war lords with the fantasy of world conquest.

It was noted often during World War II and confirmed after the war ended that the delusions of the dictators never were shared by more than a minority of their people. Their insanity, whether it was clinical or sub-clinical, was foisted off on rational majorities which knew better. That is apparently true of the Russians today; it explains the suppression of factual information and the recurrent purges by which all dictatorial governments destroy outcropping of dissent.

There may be a time when irrational acts in the name of nations controlled by mentally sick rulers will be analyzed objectively by recognized authority and dealt with by some more civilized means than war. Until that time comes, war is the alternative to letting unbalanced leadership perpetrate itself on people who know better. In the case of Berlin, the Western Powers have warned the Kremlin of the consequences of going berserk. It remains to be seen whether the warning will shock Russian leadership into a lucid interval, or infuriate it to still greater affronts to reasonableness.

Problem in Arithmetic

QUESTIONERS who wanted to know why Senator Taft released his delegates after the second ballot in the Republican convention were told in the senator's usual forthright manner, "arithmetic." It was obvious to Senator Taft that Governor Dewey had enough delegates to win the nomination; there was nothing to be gained therefore, by pretending he didn't have enough.

There will be a problem in arithmetic in Philadelphia this week, too—but it won't be handled in a forthright manner.

The Democrats' candidate for president, presumably Mr. Truman, must win 266 electoral votes to get elected. There are 169 electoral votes in the states in which Democrats won more than half the popular vote in 1946. If Mr. Truman were to win all these states, he still would need 97 electoral votes.

The most logical source of the 97 votes would be New York, California, Missouri and Kentucky, with a total of 98 votes—one more than enough. But the Republicans nominated Governor Dewey of New York and Governor Warren of California. Both men are strong in their home states. It is assumed they can carry them in the election.

It is unlikely that the Democrats can put together any combination of states with 266 electoral votes this year. The strength of the Republican ticket, the weakness of the Democrats' organization, the apathy of the blocs which formerly supported the organization's candidate and Henry Wallace make an insurmountable obstacle. The chances are that Mr. Truman, if he gets the nomination, will get only the privilege of presiding over the party's defeat and its subsequent reorganization.

If this likelihood is borne in mind for the next few days it may help to explain what is happening in the Philadelphia convention. The delegates know they probably are nominating a losing ticket. The issue, therefore, is going to be the control of the party as it passes out of control in Washington for the first time since 1932—whether what's left will be in the care of Harry Truman and his associates, in the care of James Roosevelt, Chester Bowles, Leon Henderson and their associates or in the care of the Solid South.

Wallace Gets Backing in Hollywood.

IT IS difficult to understand why the overpaid actors and writers and technicians of Hollywood go in, so generally, for left wing movements. This would not be serious were it not that some of the bosses play along with the wild men and women and let them sneak Communist atmosphere into pictures. Maybe they do not recognize Communist atmosphere and when they demand proof, it is a subject for controversy, but I declare that I have seen such propaganda in what seems to be innocent pictures. Again, the bosses say that if only one expert recognizes something, the propaganda is a failure. That is nonsense—the comulative effect is that the public is impressed by falsehood.

SOKOLSKY

Some time ago, Rabbi Benjamin Schultz of the American Jewish League against Communism went to Hollywood to set up an opposition to Communism True, assisted by Morrie Ryskind, the writer, and others, a branch of the American Jewish League against Communism was organized in that city, but with no support from Louis B. Mayer, Sam Goldwyn or the Warners. As I understand it, the only top man to join was Harry Cohn, president of Columbia Pictures, who must indeed be a courageous citizen to break through the curtain of fear, fixers and press agents who surround the mighty of movledom.

Report $100,000 Collected

So Henry Wallace, with his trombone, William S. Gailmor, raises money in Hollywood, and according to the Citizen-News of that city, 30,142 persons paid up to $2.40 each to hear the Guru. That newspaper reports $100,000 collected in donations. Gailmor announced that in addition to the donations publicly announced, there were also DTN donations—"Don't Tell Nobody," which is supposed to be funny.

The report of the meeting is startling in the sense that it was definitely pro-Russian, anti-American, Wallace is running for president of the United States, but Wallace Beery (not the actor), who heads up "Students for Wallace" and "Youth for Wallace," devoted himself to an attack on Catholic and Protestant clergy for supporting America rather than Soviet Russia.

Donations Listed

Let us have a look at the big donations as reported in the Hollywood Citizens-News:

"Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zukor, $2,000 plus $1,000 per month for the rest of the campaign. Mr. and Mrs. George Willner, $1,100; $1,000 each from: Lewis Milestone; Mr. and Mrs. Seniel Ostrow, Mrs. Nina C. Dexter of Encino, who was cited for a previous $6,000 donation. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Brown, Charles Chaplin, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Weiner, who also pledged $100 a month. Percy Soloty, Simon Lazarus, who also pledged $100 a month, and Robert Rossen.

"In the $500 or more bracket were Donald Ogden Stewart, who also pledged $100 a month, Mrs. Jean Sieroty, Dr. Edward Lipton ($850), Vera Caspery, $250 paid and $500 pledged."

Some Identifications

Some of these names require explanation. George Willner is an agent, which means that he gets a cut from the earnings of actors, writers and such for whom he finds employment. Lewis Milestone is a director, born in Odessa, Russia. Seniel Ostrow is the head of the Sealy Mattress company. This company sponsors a radio program which is generally on the left side.

Mrs. Jean Sieroty is generally regarded in Commie circles as a bleeding heart—namely, that she is always good for a big touch for a cause. She is reputed to be wealthy, her husband running a chain of department stores.

It is not against the law for these folks to contribute to Wallace any more than it would be against the law for them to contribute to Dewey or Truman—although the monthly retainer may get them into trouble. If it comes to too much. Mr. Wallace is a legitimate candidate and anyone may support him.

The puzzle here is why these extraordinarily wealthy persons who have benefited personally as a group from American capitalism, who live in luxury and enjoy higher earnings than would be possible anywhere on earth, support left wing movements. Do they hate America because it has treated them so well? Are they pro-Russian because so many of them or their parents had to take refuge here from Russian oppression? What is the phychology of it?

Truman and Democratic Party

By Walter Lippmann

THE business of the Democratic convention is to prepare the party so that it can be the effective opposition. That is extremely important business, which can be done all the better if the leaders and bosses put out of their minds the notion that they can defeat Dewey and Warren by a political stunt—as, for example, a draft of General Eisenhower led by President Truman himself.

No doubt they will feel they must pretend that they are going to win the Presidency, though, as a matter of fact, they would actually do better in the election if they were frank about it, admitted that it is the turn of the Republicans and ask for support on the ground that the country needs a strong opposition party. There must be a very considerable number of voters who would, in view of the record of the Republicans in the House, vote Democratic to strengthen the opposition but would not take the risk of prolonging the Truman administration.

LIPPMANN

Outlook Doubtful

There is a serious possibility that the Democratic party may not be able to be the effective opposition. As things are now the Southern Democrats, the New Dealers, the big urban bosses, and the Henry Wallace Democrats are all determined to wrest the control of the party from Truman and to get power for themselves in the local elections. The net result may well be such a Republican landslide, not merely a decisive Republican victory, that the Democratic party in the House would be reduced to a negligible and discordant minority of Southern Democrats and Northern Democrats from a few districts in a few of the biggest cities. This would be bad for the Democratic party and bad for the country.

Not even Governor Dewey himself could really want to win so overwhelmingly. Opposition is essential in the American system. If the Republican majority in Congress is too great, it will be unmanageable. If the Democratic party is devastated in most of the pivotal states, the White House will find it very difficult to lead, and to keep discipline within the unwieldy Republican majority in Congress.

Might Be Aggravated

This dangerous tendency toward the disintegration of the Democratic party will be aggravated if Mr. Truman is nominated and if the party machinery is used by him to wage a sharp struggle in the election. For the controling fact in the present situation is that none of the important and divergent factions wants him to win the election and, therefore, to renew his grip upon the party machinery.

The tendency to disintegration might be arrested if, though Truman were nominated, the convention took away from him and his cronies the control of the party and of the campaign. But Mr. Truman is not likely to accept the role of a candidate whom his party has nominated but does not wish to elect.

The real solution is not to nominate Truman. In itself replacing Truman would not reunite immediately the discordant factions. But it would prevent them from becoming even more discordant, and it would permit them to reunite eventually. For while they cannot reunite if there is a risk that they might win the Presidency and have to act on the many issues about which they disagree, once it is recognized that they will not be governing the country, the issues that divide them will lose their heat and urgency. The Democrats can be united as an opposition party, not as a party which might have to govern.

The Question Is "Who?"

If not Truman, then who could and should it be? Certainly not General Eisenhower, not only for the reasons which he has stated but also because the one role he is most clearly not in a position to fill is that of leader of the opposition. The opposition can be led efficiently only by a Democratic politician who has a sure seat in Congress and a thorough knowledge of the machinery of the government, of legislative issues and procedure, and of the Democratic party. In fact the opposition cannot be led by some one who is not a member of Congress. Any other leader would be reduced to issuing statements and to negotiating with the Democrats in Congress who must inevitably be the actual opposition.

This should rule out Mr. Justice Douglas. For what would he be doing after he had been defeated in November? He would be the titular head of the party—in fact, however, a private citizen who might be listened to but could not hope to lead, perhaps not even to participate in, the Democratic caucus in Congress.

Why Not Barkley?

The best solution would, therefore, seem to be the nomination of a senator who commands the respect of all the factions and will in any event be the actual leader of the Democratic opposition in Congress. Is not that man Senator Barkley of Kentucky?

His nomination would be a frank and honest acceptance of the realities of the political situation—that the Democrats are not out to win the Presidency but to survive as the national party of opposition, to be critical, vigilant but good-humored about the return of the Republicans and the rise of Dewey. By nominating Barkley, the actual leader of the party in the next years would also be made the titular leader. The enhancement of his prestige and influence would serve the party well during the years immediately ahead, when it will be able to exercise national power and influence only in Congress.

Since there would be no chance of Senator Barkley's election to the Presidency, the questions do not arise which would otherwise have to be asked about his age and his experience in executive office. It is enough that he is a most experienced legislator, a seasoned politician, and so well liked and so generally trusted that he could more readily than any one else be the mediator and harmonizer which the party so greatly needs.

He would obviously not be a candidate for the nomination four or eight years hence when the Democrats may again be serious contenders. Therefore, during this period of Democratic retirement, when the party will be reorganizing, recovering, and above all rejuvenating itself, he will not stand in the way of the new men who, as Governors of states or as Senators and Congressmen, will be proving their availability.

Pre-Convention Picture

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Tuesday, July 12, 1938.

Howard Hughes landed his big silvery monoplane at Omsk, Siberia, approximately the halfway point of his round-the-world flight.

Fire Chief T. J. McFarland was an honor guest at a testimonial dinner given at the Marion Country club. More than 300 persons, including Marion officials and business men and prominent representatives of fire-fighting organizations in Ohio attended. The occasion marked his 35th anniversary as head of the Marion fire department.

Mrs. S. W. Lucas was elected president of the DeMolay Mothers circle at a picnic meeting held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Probst on Mt. Vernon avenue.

A discussion of small home construction was a highlight of the monthly meeting of District No. 11 of the Ohio Association of Retail Lumber Dealers, at Hotel Harding. The discussion was in charge of Erwin King of Ada.

"Cashing In On Your Mental Margin" was the subject of a talk given by Brooks Fleither, Congressman from the Eighth district, at a meeting of the Rotary club at Hotel Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kinnear of East Center street entertained at dinner for Mrs. Fred Schaeffer of Clearwater, Fla. The occasion also honored Mrs. Z. Gunder who was celebrating her birthday anniversary.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, July 12, 1928.

Three survivors of the Nobil polar expedition, lost on Arctic ice floes since May 25, were rescued by the Russian ice breaker, Krassin. Professor Finn Malmagren, leader of the party, was found dead from illness and exposure.

A brand new Democratic party, shorn of the last fringe of the Bryan influence, made its bow to the country with the appointment of John J. Raskob as chairman. The appointment was considered to have put big business in control of the party's affairs. With Raskob in the driver's seat was Governor Alfred E. Smith, the party's presidential nominee.

Mrs. Esther Salome Hunter Eatherton, 98, believed to be the county's oldest woman resident, died at the home of her son, William P. Eatherton of 308 Carner avenue.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who shortly more than a year before had become the first man to fly from New York to Paris, learned in North Plate, Neb., that fame is fleeting. "Never heard of him," said a restaurant proprietor when the colonel stopped to have a $4 check cashed. A short time later he was turned away from a hotel because of a full house and was forced to spend the night in a rooming house.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lon Stanley of Wood street.

The Central Labor union was on record as indorsing the acquisition of an airport by the city.

A son was born the preceding day to Mr. and Mrs. Hal Barringer of Homer street, at the City hospital.

Seventeen women from the Bucyrus Country club were guests of Marion women at a golf breakfast and bridge at the country club here.

Hitting a High Note

Value of $20 Bills Leads All Denominations.

MORE money is floating around in $100 bills than in $1 bills.

This may surprise a great many persons who aren't in the habit of carrying around much of a wad of $100 bills.

But the Federal Reserve Board says it's so.

The most popular bill of all, however, is that $20 number. The dollar value total of $20's in circulation tops the total value of any other denomination, the Federal Reserve Bulletin says. Since 1939, circulation of $20's has increased 454 per cent.

That popular piece of paper, in fact, shoved the ten-spot out of its prewar first place. The $10's increased only 239 per cent in circulation.

The $100 bill is a comer, however. It's in third place in popularity and it increased its circulation 439.9 per cent since 1939. Next to the $20 bill, it's the fastest growing note in America.

The $50's are fourth, the $5's are fifth and $1's sixth in the popularity sweeps. Don't sell the $50's short. They rushed forward 438.9 per cent in circulation since 1939.

The old reliable fins and bucks aren't doing too well in popular appeal. The $5 rose less than 95 per cent since prewar and the $1 less than 75 per cent. That isn't very much when you consider the amount of all money in circulation increased more than 265 per cent since 1939.

There isn't much more to the story. That lucky $1,000 bill was in seventh place in 1939, seventh place in 1948, and seventh place in rate of gain of nearly 77 per cent.

The $500 in eighth, the $2 in ninth, the $10,000 in 10th and the $5,000 in 11th place also remained unchanged compared with 1939.

Funny thing about $10,000 and $5,000 bills. They were the only ones declining in amount outstanding since prewar.

Did you notice, too, that you had fewer $10,000's and $5,000's in your pocket lately?

Importance of Newspapers

From Editor and Publisher.

ONE MIGHT well imagine how a modern political convention could be operated to a successful conclusion without newspapers and newspapermen. We don't think it could be.

Surely, agents of political leaders and candidates could surreptitiously invade the enemy stronghold to discover their thinking, their strength and their strategy. But to obtain any sort of a comprehensive picture, in a three-ring circus such as the early days of the GOP convention this year with a half-dozen seeking the nomination, these agents would have to build up their own newspaper reporting organizations.

Without newspapers the thousand-odd delegates and alternates would be in the dark most of the time as to what was going on behind the scenes. No one person can keep up with all the committee meetings, the press conferences, speeches, charges and counter-charges, and the political deals. Sure, every delegate could carry a portable radio—but then they wouldn't have time to listen to the actual speakers. What's more, most of the news that comes over the radio is gathered by newspapermen anyway.

The only conclusion is that newspapers and newspapermen are just about indispensable in our complex society. There are other ways of getting information, and a person can always attempt to find out for himself. But there is no other means whereby the people, even the participants in a national political convention, can get information pertaining to themselves in such a complete, accurate and speedy manner as through the daily newspaper.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mr. Menjou Takes Us Back

Adolf Menjou in a recent book tells of the days of the free lunch as a traditional feature in cafe life. He confesses to a period in New York when he and numerous other men, who are now biggies in the amusement world, had so little money that they lived off the free lunch at places like the Claridge and Knickerbocker hotels. More food was given away at the bars with a nickel beer than can now be bought at most hotels short of five dollars.

PHILLIPS

"After a second five-cent glass of beer," he writes, "we would drift casually to the free lunch counter at the Claridge which served the best free lunch in Times Square. There were juicy slices of the choicest meats. A thin cut between crispy slices of rye bread made an entree fit for a king. There were also fat sausages, hard boiled eggs, fine salads, spring onions and creamy cottage cheese. Following our lunch there, we would move on to the Knickerbocker at Broadway and Forty-second. Then we would have dined sumptuously for the prices of a few beers."

* * *

How you take us back, Adolf! We don't remember the Claridge but the first time we visited New York as a callow but hungry kid, we discovered the Knickerbocker free lunch, a feast incredible to those who never had seen it before. There on great tables near the bar were piled roasts of beef, turkeys, chickens and hams, lobster and chicken salads, every known cheese and acres of other viands. Even in those times when the free lunch was common, we never had beheld one as regal as this. (We remember that we felt furtive and didn't dare make a second round on one glass of beer. Later we made two trips with no rebuke from house attaches. Ultimately we developed the manner which made it possible to graze there for an hour.

* * *

What big-hearted, jovial fellows those cafe men of yesterday were! The free lunch was to be found in every cafe and bar. The quantity and quality varied, of course, but the cheapest bar respected the appetite of even the most casual customer. Maybe it limited the supply to cube cheese, crackers and bologna, but there was never a shortage.

* * *

We remember a pretty famous free lunch at Adam Ziegler's, a famous haunt of theatrical men, in Crown street back home. Every noon a waiter called Dorando served free enormous plates of hot soup (none of your modern you-can-see-bottom-it's-so-clear stuff) and followed it up with a plate of goulash. Adam piled the free lunch counter high with frankfurters, pig's knuckles, cheeses and salads.

* * *

Heublein's at Court and Church could break a modern cafe man's heart by the stuff he gave away. Bill Ray's free lunch at his Church street cafe was out of this world, and a free loader could live without spending a dime for groceries by visiting Mooney & Kennedy's, Clarke's Palace Cafe, Toole & McGinn's or Emil Schultz's.

* * *

And this was when the biggest glass of beer in town cost five cents and when every cocktail and highball sold two for a quarter. Today what do you get? A few potato chips and maybe a cracker! And not with beer, mister.

* * *

Adolf, why did you have to start us on this?

The Unknown Generation

By TRUMAN TWILL

The chances are that not one person who reads this ever will have anything named after him, except a baby.

A survey shows that all the cigars, for example, either have been named after men long dead or in loving memory of curvaceous refugees from reducing classes for fat ladies, wearing roses back of their ears.

Not a single street or highway can be found which doesn't already bear a name, and anyway the modern trend in that department is to name streets after Pullman cars, to keep people from feeling jealous of one another.

All the fancy dishes in the cook books have been named. Rockefeller got the oysters, Melba nailed the peaches and the Romanovs nabbed the cherries. Some fellow named Mock has things sewed up in the ersatz turtle field.

Apparently there isn't a chance to break into the clothing business, though there may someday be a sleeping garment named in honor of Bing Crosby. But Lord Chesterfield and Prince Albert got there first in the fancy dress line.

With mustaches and beards out of style, there's no use thinking about that. The Chaplin mustache is the only one to be added to that collection in this century, and what Hotler did to it shouldn't have happened to a Van Dyke.

A fellow yearning for immortality might build a better piano and name it in his own honor, but with the piano business what it is he'd have a better chance if he went into the radio racket. A couple of the boys have made good there with a vengeance, though no one's ever sure whether radios were named after them or they were named after the radios.

Two fellows have achieved immortality recently by having new automobiles named after them and a couple more are trying to make the grade. But steel shortages and sales resistance probably will lick them.

It's not against the law to have a building named in honor of the fellow who raised the money—it used to be done all the time—but with building costs what they are today it's no longer practical. Anyway, no one ever bothers to look at the names on buildings, except pigeons.

A fellow can open a hamburger joint or a saloon and go down in history that way, but this field is crowded with characters named Joe, Steve and Mack who are killing off one another's fame.

A musical genius can write a symphony and call it Opus No. 5 by Zilch but no one will know about it because Beethoven, Tschaikowsky and Shostakovich did it first—and better.

A horticulturist can develop a new vegetable or a new flower, but he is up against the same kind of tough opposition. A lot of other fellows got there first.

Even in politics it's a hard row to hoe. The Truman Doctrine, on close examination, is nothing but the Monroe Doctrine turned upside down, and the Marshall Plan is just another name for lend-lease.

It looks as if the modern generation will have to be content to live and die in obscurity.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

"COUNT Georges and Mr 'K' also," Olga went on

I ticked them off on my fingers

"Georges, Mr 'K' Philip my father Noel, Dicky and Harry Underwood," I said

"Seven in all," she said then added with a twinkle in her eye Better say ten, three, for Jim and the two Tiger men

"And now for the dinner table," Olga went on, when I had jotted down the ten boutonnieres.

"First," I interrupted, "what flowers for the boutonnieres"

"Whatever Mr Kennedy has that will fit in with orchids," she said

"You can safely leave it to him," I said, and then poised my pencil for the dinner table instructions

"Has he planned the dining room decorations" she asked

"Only in general," I said "He will have plenty of greens for the pictures, the mirrors and the buffets, but he will not select the flowers for that room until he knows your color scheme, and the flowers you wish for the table"

"I remember" she said dreamily, "the marriage of a cousin, at which Olina was a flower girl when she was five She was so thrilled by the table decorations that she whispered to me, 'Maman, when I grow up and get married, may my table look like that?' I would like to bring that picture to life for her, if I can"

I choked back tears at the maternal love and longing in her voice, partly, I knew because I was visioning a day in the future when I might be planning Faith's wedding I sincerely hoped nobody else would be functioning at that task

"It will all be pale gold and green," she said dreamily, "with perhaps touches of lavender purple and bronze in the pansies which will accent the other table flowers

"Around the walls, at the sconces, and the pictures, and wherever else Mr Kennedy deems best I wish yellow and white lilies: great clusters of them against the green

"Then in the center of the table she said 'I wish him to contrive a long narrow heavy mirror of very good glass, with no border except the glass edges Around it will be laid delicate greenery ferns or whatever he thinks best guaranteed to stay fresh during the evening Set in that greenery closely following the contour of the mirror will be a delicate shallow frame-work holding water, with small pierced holes around the upper edge into which can be thrust the stems of yellow pansies, with a few dark colored ones, and lilies of the valley which almost will touch the glass The framework will be filled with tiny yellow rosebuds, yellow pansies with a few browns and violet ones for accent, and lilies of the valley with whatever delicate green Mr. Kennedy wishes From your description of him, I imagine his judgement is unerring"

"I think it is," I said, "but oh Olga, what a wonderful thing you are planning! Olina will love it"

"If she notices it at all" Olga said, with a faint tinge of bitterness in her voice.

PRICE ADVANCES EXPECTED ON STEEL

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 12—Price advances may accompany the abandonment of the basing point price system by U S Steel Corp, the magazine Steel said today.

Commenting on the largest producer's announcement it would sell only on an F O B mill basis, the trade journal said:

'Although U S Steel did not indicate what prices would be under the new method there has been considerabel conjecture it will be accompanied with price advances to cover higher operating costs including an anticipated wage increase to steelworkers, it reported.

'Elsewhere on the price front a five per cent increase in the price of alloy steel was effected by one producer pig iron was raised four dollars a gross ton by one company, and oven foundry coke was advanced 90 cents a ton by other interests.

Steel said the U S Steel move would set the pattern for the industry and that the national economy is due for a jolt that would affect even the man in the street.

The Fourth of July holiday and an explosion in a Chicago mill caused the national steel ingot rate to drop six points last week to 89 per cent of rated capacity.

"This is the lowest level recorded since May 1" said Steel, when the industry was hit by a coal miners work stoppage."

CLEANING PLANT HEAD PLANS REBUILDING

Hopes Voiced by Delaware Man After Fire.

DELAWARE, July 12—Hope of rebuilding at least a part of the White Rose Laundry destroyed by fire here Saturday was voiced today by plant manager Robert Scott.

Scott watched the plant go up in smoke in an early morning blaze fanned by the East Harrison street estate suffered a mass of ruins with loss estimated at over $100 000.

It was the third major dry-cleaning plant fire in Delaware within 10 months and virtually a repetition of those which leveled the Cad Rite Cleaners plant last October and the bowers plant in April.

One volunteer fireman Robert Zimmerman was injured. He suffered a severe electric shock when a stream of water from a hose line struck a hot power line.

Cause of the fire which Scott said apparently started in the front end of the building is undetermined. Insurance adjusters and firemen were to begin their investigation today. The loss is covered by insurance. Scott said.

Barberton Lady Lost 38 Lbs. Without Dieting

Mrs K Fish 379 Ayr St Barberton, Ohio writes. When I started using Rennel I weighed 193 pounds. I now weigh 155 pounds and have lost that sluggish tired out feeling which I had for sometime. Since using Rennel all of my friends praise the difference in my appearance and my sister is also using it since seeing what it has done for me.

Hundreds of others have obtained similar relief from the social and physical discomfort of being overweight. Why not try this effective yet inexpensive method of reducing and enjoy the pleasures of feeling younger and more alive. Try Rennel and notice the admiring looks you receive from your friends as your figure becomes younger and your vitality increases. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough unsweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle and then take two tablespoonfuls a day. That's all there is to it. If you aren't satisfied with the results return the empty bottle to the manufacturer and your money will be refunded. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel—no starvation diet—no pruned diet list to buy—no vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry. Don't be switched to another product. Insist on the genuine Rennel.

Wallace Says Democratic Party No Longer Useful

By The Associated Press

The third party candidate predicted yesterday the convention will make it clear there are only two national parties of real significance the utterly reactionary Republican party and the new party

He called the Democratic party the instrument of reactionary interests whose assignment is to sound liberal and create the impression that there are real party differences

Wallace attended the organizing convention of his Progressive party in West Virginia It was held in the Negro Knights of Pythias auditorium which state party leaders said was the only suitable hall for a meeting of different races

Who Do Not Now Have Combination Windows and Doors

Here's Why Weather-Seal Uses Only California Coastal Redwood

Nearly 2000 years ago, when Christianity was born, there was started on the other side of the world a virgin stand of sturdy timber . . . destined to become the world's most magnificent trees.

Nether weather, blight nor insects could conquer its great resistance. In 1769, when the Spanish Padres first glimpsed these giant trees, standing 250 feet toward the sky and 8 to 16 feet in diameter, they named them Redwood, because of their color.

Weather-Seal uses only California Coastal Redwood. It is tough and strong, world famous for low shrinkage and high resistance to decay . . . seems to be "eternal" in its wonderful health and strength. After fourteen years of research, in all types of material both wood and metal, we have found nothing to equal it for beauty and permanent, satisfactory performance. That's why we guarantee Weather-Seal doors and windows, in writing, for a lifetime.

Marion Legion Juniors Lose 1st Interstate Game To Detroit Falcons

Bow to Motor City Champs, 8-5, In Heartbreaking 3-Run Ninth

By GEORGE SCOTT

Although they were underdogs Marion's American Legion Junior baseball team battled the Hamtramck Falcons on even terms before going down in a heart-breaking ninth inning 8-5 yesterday afternoon at Lincoln park.

The Marion club outhit the visitors and but for spotty fielding in the early innings might have won. Merle Daum was far more effective than the score indicates. Of the eight runs charged against him only four were earned.

The Falcons broke loose twice scoring four in the second and three in the ninth. Going into the ninth the score was tied at 5-all. After Daum had retired two he lost his control and filled the bases with two walks and a single. Nawbacki who hadn't done a thing all afternoon blasted a double to left off relief pitcher Ronald Larcom and that was the ball game.

Stoffer Homers

Big George Stoffer who had struck out twice came up to the plate to lead off the fifth inning. This time he tied into one and knocked it out of the park. The drive cleared the left centerfield wall with plenty to spare. The crowd of 300 cheered when it was announced that the Probst Supply Co. had awarded $5 to Stoffer's father Mark Stoffer in recognition of the blow.

Stoffer also played a bang-up game in the field. He handed five chances cleanly and made the outstanding fielding play of the afternoon. Kazanski hit one in the seventh inning that had triple written all over it. Stoffer ran back, got his glove on it and when the ball bounced out he grabbed desperately and hung onto it.

The affair was the first of its kind in the history of Junior Legion baseball. For the first time two teams of separate states met in regular season play. After the contest Commander Krol of the Hamtramck post of the American Legion presented a baseball autographed by all the Falcon team to Coach Ninnie Irvin's young ball players.

Judge W. E. Martin introduced Andy Templeton, secretary of the Detroit district American Legion Junior league and several other visitors from the motor city before the game. Rev. J. B. Holloway, the Marion club's chaplain, spoke on sportsmanship.

Will Meet Again

The Marion team which played such an impressive game even though losing will get another chance in August when they will play a return game with the Falcons. While at Detroit they will make a tour of the River Rouge plant, visit Greenfield Village and attend a big league game.

A photographer took pictures of the game for a Detroit newspaper. Also action shots were taken for Sporting News.

Pitcher Merle Daum who was batting below 100 before the game surprised the crowd by slapping out two singles his first two times at bat. His brother, first baseman Jack Daum got two for two for a perfect day at the plate. Jim Seiter, catcher, was the only other Marion player who collected two.

Saturday afternoon the Marion American Legion Junior team capitalized on eight Sunbury errors and collected 11 hits to trounce the visitors 12-3. Dick Jones pitched the first three innings and got credit for the win.

Ron Gray blasted out a triple and a single to lead the Marion assault. Simon Levitz's boys had the game sewed up in the first when they scored five times. The Marion club committed six errors but stole the same number of bases.

Jim Edington did a fine job of hurling after he went into the game in the third. The Sunbury batsmen couldn't do a thing against him. From the fourth on they didn't talk. Dick Wolfe, Marion third baseman, hit safely three of the five times he batted.

Major League Moguls Incensed Over Refusal Of Feller, Marion to Play in All-Star Game

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS, July 12—The fate of the major league All Star classic hung in the balance today.

Incensed over the refusal of Bobby Feller and Monty Marion to play in the 15th annual All Star game here tomorrow and the apparent apathy of others, big league club owners were preparing for a showdown with the players.

From a reliable source it was learned that the moguls, backed by Presidents Ford Frick of the National league and Will Harridge of the American, were ready to issue the following ultimatum to the players:

Either you live up to your moral obligations and play when called upon or let's drop the whole thing.

All Eight Worked, Too

It was pointed out that each of the eight pitchers comprising the American league staff worked either Saturday or Sunday. Bob Lemon of Cleveland, Joe Page of New York, Joe Dobson of Boston, Walter Masterson of Washington, Hal Newhouser of Detroit and Joe Coleman of Philadelphia all pitched Sunday as well as Feller.

The Yankees, Vic Raschi and Ed Lopat, the Chicago White Sox, Joe Haynes, hurled Saturday. Of the National league's six pitchers only Johnny Schmitz worked over the weekend. The Chicago Cubs' lefthander pitched a two-hitter Saturday.

Feller backed out because he said it would interrupt his regular pitching rotation for Cleveland. St. Louis Manager Marty Marion, who has been rested because of a strained back, begged off because he said he wasn't in the best shape. Yet he is scheduled to start in vesterday's Cards-Reds game with several diving stops of ground balls.

Leading Marion Driver Is 62 and Hopes to be 100

"Cuss that horse—don't love him," Walt Dispanette shouted to one of his trainers who was bringing a trotter to a halt before the Dispanette stables.

The leading driver of the Marion harness racing meet so far with five wins, five seconds and three thirds didn't look his 62 years. He was tall, thin and well tanned.

"My father is 87 and still going," he said when asked of his health.

"Do you thing you'll live that long?"

"Sure. I'll live past a hundred if I don't break my neck on some track racing. My grandmother almost made it. She lived to be 99."

From Muncie, Ind. Walt started racing harness horses when he was about 20 years old. Last year he placed 35th in the country in dashes won with 55. Before coming to Marion he won 12 races at the Fremont track this year.

"That old mare down there, Amy Grattan, holds the world record on a three mile track. Another of my horses, Commie Azor, holds the world record for three heats. They're both beautiful horses. I got my greatest thrills driving those two." He said as he pushed his battered hat back on his head.

Dispanette is currently racing for the Parlay Acres Farm of C. D. England of Marion. He is married and originally from Indianapolis where he plans to return.

Out there on the track a driver's hands are the most valuable thing he has. With your hands you win or lose a race. And every horse responds in a different way. It looks easy but when I finish a race I'm tired—plenty tired."

Like so many drivers, Walt prefers a trotter to a pacer. He says he gets more enjoyment racing a trotter.

During his 42 years of racing Dispanette has had his leg and an ankle broken beside having his hip fractured on two places when a horse kicked him about 13 years ago. But they'll give you good odds out at the fairgrounds that he'll make the 100-year mark.

Ike Williams Takes On Beau Jack Tonight

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 12—Ike Williams at his best when the chips are down, takes on what may be his toughest assignment tonight in a 15-round defense of his lightweight boxing title against Beau Jack.

The sharp punching Trenton, N. J. Tiger, who was a 2 to 1 favorite to beat the fast Georgia shoeshine boy seeking to regain a title he has held twice before.

Promotor Herman Taylor looks for a crowd of between 25,000 and 30,000 to be in their seats when the referee calls the two little scrappers to the center at the Shibe park ring at 9:15 p. m. Eastern Standard time. That will mean a gate in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Williams, who gained undisputed claim to the crown by knocking out Bob Montgomery last August, will be after his 10th straight victory. His last defeat was in January, 1947, at the hands of Gene Burton.

Shortstop Alvin Dark, $40,000 Bonus Player, Is Paying Back Braves Outlay With Interest

By The Associated Press

The Boston Braves gave Alvin Dark $40,000 to sign with the organization in 1946 and the rookie shortstop is paying back the outlay with interest.

Dark's .344 clip in the National league at the midseason mark but safely in 25 consecutive games. That streak, three games short of the rookie record set by Guy Curtright of the Chicago White Sox in 1942, has enabled the Braves' shortstop to move into fourth place in the circuit's individual batting race. Dark is whacking the ball at a .333 pace for the league-leading Braves.

Teams With Ryan

Dark is teaming up with Connie Ryan around the keystone.

Dark and Ryan collected five of the Braves' 14 hits yesterday in a 9-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Phillies at Boston.

The triumph increased the Braves' lead to 5½ games over the runner-up Pittsburgh Pirates who were beaten 1-0, by the Cubs in Chicago.

Ken Raffensberger pitched the Cincinnati Reds to a 1-0 one hit triumph over the third place Cardinals in St. Louis.

Jack Conway's first major league home run gave the Giants a 2-1 decision over the Brooklyn Dodgers at New York. Conway delivered a pinch two-bagger by George Hausmann and Carl Furillo accounted for both Brooklyn runs.

TRIBE SPLITS, LEMON WINS, FELLER LOSES

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 12—The Cleveland Indians' hopes of a season's league-leading mark, crippled more than a dozen times by injuries this season, enjoyed an All-Star game breather today in their pennant battle.

Rookie catcher Joe Tipton's ninth-inning hard luck single yesterday as Bob Lemon pitched a 4-3 All-Star fashion to cap off a double-header victory over the troublesome St. Louis Browns after Bob Feller was gunned down in the opener before 39,940 fans.

Tipton struck on the hand by a pitched ball while Lemon was carving out a brilliant 5-0 victory was sidelined for a week to the second time this season. He was replaced by Jim Hegan, the Tribe's only other receiver, who was behind the plate as Feller dropped a 3-2 home run duel.

Lemon's three-hit masterpiece was his sixth shutout of the season giving him another first among major league hurlers. He also leads in strikeouts, complete games and is tied for the top in victories with 13.

A two-run fifth inning outburst won the nightcap for Cleveland. The frame featured doubles by Mitchell and Edwards, a walk, Manager Lou Boudreau's single and Joe Gordon's 17th homer with one aboard.

The Indians took an early lead against Cliff Fannin in the opener with first inning homers by Mitchell and Edwards who batted seven of the Tribe's 12 hits in the two games. The lead was upped out and Feller suffered his 10th loss when Dick Kokos rapped a two-run homer and Les Moss clouted the clincher in the ninth.

Tribe President Bill Veeck, perturbed by the blast of New York Manager Bucky Harris at Feller's withdrawal from the All-Star game, declared yesterday that the move was decided upon in a conference of Feller, Boudreau and himself in the interest of "winning a pennant."

Veeck rapped the Yankees for holding Spud Chandler out of the 1946 dream game so he could hurl against Feller and asserted: "I would suggest to Mr. Harris that running the Yankees is a full time job and that he devote his complete time to it."

BREWERS DUMP RED BIRDS TWICE

By The Associated Press

Running up a winning streak of eight straight, the Milwaukee Brewers currently are the hottest club in the American Association and have moved in as Indianapolis' best challenger.

The Indians hung on to a three-game margin by dumping Columbus 9-8 and 4-3 Sunday. The double jolt dropped the Red Birds 5½ games behind the Tribe and 2½ behind Milwaukee.

The Brewers remained on the trail by belting St. Paul 10-5 and 3-1.

Damon Phillips' three-run clout and Jim Gleeson's two-run homer were the big blows in the opener. Catcher Frank Kerr notched his first homer of the season for Milwaukee in the closer.

At Indianapolis the Tribe was off on a three-game victory chain after losing five in a row. Two ninth-inning errors by Columbus—the league's top fielding club—handed the Indians their first victory. Ray Broome booted one in left field and Catcher Joe Garagiola later dropped Broome's throw after making a tag at the plate.

While Yankee co-owners Dan Topping and Del Webb looked on, the Blues hammered out 6-3 and 2-1 wins over the Minneapolis Millers in Kansas City.

Toledo grabbed a 12-inning opener from Louisville 9-8 but the Colonels won the afterpiece 3-1 with George Strickland's two-run triple in the fifth providing the edge.

STATE WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNEY STARTS TODAY

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 12—Ohio's lady golfers will open the annual state women's tournament today at the Columbus Country club.

A field of 85 entrants will be headed by defending champion Peggy Kirk. Eighteen holes of qualifying play is scheduled for today, with match play opening tomorrow. Finals are scheduled Friday over 36 holes.

FIRE DESTROYS BALL FIELD

By International News Service

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 12—A two-alarm flash fire early today completely destroyed Edmonds Field, home park of the Pacific Coast baseball league's Sacramento Solons. Yub Separas, general manager and co-owner of the club said replacement "will run well over a million dollars." He said insurance amounted to only $250,000.

The Cleveland Indians retained their first game lead over the Boston Americans in the American league race by dividing a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns while the Athletics split a pair with the Boston Red Sox in Philadelphia.

After the Browns beat Bobby Feller 3-2 in the opener on home runs by Rookie Dick Kokos and Les Moss, Bob Lemon pitched the Tribe to a 5-0 three-hitter in the nightcap.

An Epic Tie

The Athletics also split their twin bill with Boston, but only after 18 innings of the second game which ended in a 1-1 tie. The Athletics had taken the opener from Boston 7-5. The second game was called in the eighteenth inning because of the Sunday curfew.

Athletic Hal Newhouser's 11-game winning streak was halted by hurling his first game of the season against the Chicago White Sox. The Washington Senators split a pair with the Detroit Tigers, winning the opener 4-3 in ten innings, and losing the nightcap 9-4 as the New York Yankees won at Washington.

Fans To Watch Dispanette—Welch Duel as Races Head into 2nd Week

Both Sulky Drivers Have Won Five Dashes in First Week of Program

Tonight when the eight-race program ushers in the second week of Marion harness racing at the fairgrounds all eyes will be searching for the green and white silks of Walt Dispanette and the white and red of Scotty Welch.

Welch had no sooner gone one up on Dispanette as wins by driving Herkimer to victory in the fifth race Saturday night than Dispanette came back in the next race to tie it up again. Each driver now has five wins to his credit.

Herkimer, the favorite in the fifth race, a two year old trot, went past the judges stand well in lead at the start but soon fell back to third. At the half the brown filly was still third but Welch told her to go the second time around and she came over the wire first with apparent ease.

Scotty Welch held his edge for but a short time for in the sixth a to Walt Dispanette driving Hallelujah, owned by C D England of Marion lead all the way to win the 9 16 mile 16 class pace for a purse of $600 in 1 10 4 5.

4,200 Attend

More than 4,200 racing fans filled both stands and lined the rails. The crowd was just a few hundred short of the attendance of the opening night.

The second race of the evening was strictly Marion and near Marion. First, second, and third were Prep, owned by D. C. Cessna of Kenton; Nancy K., owned by Milt Anderson of Kenton; and Lema Lord, owned by C. R. Baker of Richwood. Guy Expert, owned by Clare W. Smith of Marion, came in fourth and Keller, owned by Carl A. Kull of Marion trotted home sixth.

In the racing to date Bob Mason has brought in three winners putting him within easy reach of Welch and Dispanette. Seven drivers have won two. They are Bus Edwards, Slim Shilling, Charley Sims, Lou Huber Jr., Russ Wickersham, Clayton Cox, and Jess Brickerhoff.

Pretty Laurel Mae Wickersham riding on a prize-winning tan and white pony paraded the horses before the stands Saturday night. The daily double paid $35.40 for winners Baldy H. in the first and Prep in the second race.

KEN RAFFENSBERGER HURLS 2ND 1-HITTER

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, July 12 — Ken (Cannonball) Raffensberger held the Cincinnati Reds' hero's spotlight today after hurling his second one-hit game of the season.

The second one-hitter came yesterday as the Reds took a 1-0 victory from the St. Louis Cardinals. The big lefthander previously held the same club to one hit May 31.

Marty Marion spoiled Raffy's chances for a no-hitter yesterday when he singled in the fourth. Nipp Jones got the only hit in the earlier game.

Raffensberger's deceptive pitches backed by tight defensive play permitted the Cardinals to put only four men on base. Two walks and an error by Grady Hatton accounted for the others to get safely to first.

Although holding the Cards to one hit, Raffy did not get one strikeout. All men were retired on the field.

Raffensberger is "the only major league pitcher to twice achieve a one-hitter this season. Russ Meyer of the Chicago Cubs pitched one as did Harry (Ehet Cat) Brecheen of the Cardinals.

There have been no one-hitter in the American league this season.

And while Raffensberger was forcing Cardinal batters to pop-up or ground out, the Reds collected hits, but were able only to turn Johnny Wyrostek's initial hit into a score.

Wyrostek opened the game with a single and scored as Benny Zientara grounded out. Alpha Brazle was touched for seven hits in eight innings and Jim Hearn escaped untouched in the final inning.

Richmond Braves Down Marion Cubs in Three Games

Hoosiers Win Saturday, 8-5, Then Sweep Doubleheader, 5-0 and 4-2

RICHMOND, Ind., July 12—Frank Kriste's Marion Cubs today were taking a hasty backward look at the once-tame Richmond Braves, now in full pursuit of the Buckeye Ohio-Indiana league lead.

Richmond Sunday swept a double bill with the Cubs, 5-0 and 4-2. Saturday night the Hoosier team dropped Marion, 8-5. With three straight wins, Richmond cut the margin between its eighth-place squad and Marion to two games.

The two teams meet here again at Municipal stadium tonight in a single game. With an overworked mound crew, Skipper Kristie may have to flip a nickel to pick a loser. He was undecided Monday as to who he would start.

Marion ran into three good pitching performances against the rolling Richmond team. Richmond Manager Ollie Beyers won the Saturday night game for his fifth straight win after four losses. Byers gave up nine hits but the Braves collected 15 off three Marion hurlers with Jim Edgar the loser.

Sunday righthander Jim Herndon tossed a four-hit shutout for his third whitewash job of the season. It was Herndon's eighth win with nine losses.

In Sunday's seven-inning nightcap Dayton's Joe Tamaska did the trick with a six-hitter for his fourth win against eight losses. The 6-foot-2 righty has allowed only 83 hits in 111 innings, despite his poor record.

Some weak fielding at the wrong moments cost the Cubs in the Sunday double trouble. Left-fielder Bill Boldur made macues at crucial moments in both games. His three base error allowed three runs to score in the sixth inning of the nightcap as the Braves rallied to win.

While ex-skipper Lew Bekeza went along with the Bs, new skipper Kristie seems to follow the destiny of the K's. He tried out two new left-handers Sunday. Jim Koehler and Tom Kelley. Each pitched quite creditably but each lost.

Richmond's tossers received flawless support. The Braves came up with three double plays in the opener and two more in the shortened after-piece. Marion had one in the opener and two more in the second.

Herndon faced only 29 batters in his shutout win. He was in trouble in only one inning, the second, when he loaded the bases with two outs. Kristie singled, Don Schmitt doubled and Dale Schnepf walked. But hurler Koehler lined out to short to end.

Smitty's Team Sweep Doubleheader Sunday

The Marion All Stars and Maids Sunday night at Crystal Lake park made a clean sweep of a double bill, with the Boys team dropping Gambrinus Beer of Columbus, 10-5, and the Girls downing Mt. Vernon's Girls team 8-2.

The Maids, playing the opener, had little trouble in taking their 12th win in 14 games as they pushed in one run in each of the second, third and fourth frames and climaxed with a five-run splurge in the final. Miss Mochel permitted only three hits to the Mt. Vernon fems, while her mates blasted out seven safeties.

Smitty's Boys jumped to a 3-2 lead in the first stanza, added one in the second, four in the big third and one each in the fourth and sixth. Fritz Walters led the hitters with a single, double and a homer, while Culver, Mulvaine and George Keel each hit safely twice. Keel counted a triple and double while Culver and Mulvaine cracked out doubles.

On Friday the All Stars won their ninth NCO league triumph as Pats Millisor shutout Mt. Vernon on the Mounties field, 3-0. A twin bill tonight at Crystal Lake will feature the Ashland Indians and Smitty's Boys in a NCO league game in the afterpiece and the Maids and Ashland Girls' team in the opener at 7:30.

Lloyd Mangrum Wins 3rd Annual Columbus Open by One Stroke Over George Schoux

By PETE HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, O., July 13—Chicago's Lloyd Mangrum had the $2,000 first prize, and practically everybody hoisted a batch of birdies, as the third annual $10,000 Columbus Open golf tourney went into the record books.

Mangrum, twice winner of the purple heart, and 1946 National Open victor, overcame a three-stroke deficit going into the final round of the 72-hole medal play event and won by a single shot over George Schoux of San Francisco, a 39-year-old pro without a job.

Mangrum scored a 288, just 16 under par while Schoux was 15 under with 289 despite a closing 72, for the $1,400 second prize.

Old man par—he's 71—was a bit chagrined after the beating the Wyandot public layout, a 6,413-yard course, absorbed at the hands of the club-swinging athletes.

32 Under Par

Of the 100 who started the tourney, and the 56 who finished, 32 were under par for the route and three others matched the card. Birdies were a dime a gross as 856 were registered in the three-day chase along with 38 eagles and one double eagle. Those who finished even with par couldn't land in the prize list which extended through the first 20.

Schoux, who led by four strokes at the end of 36 holes, practically gave the tourney away. In the second round he called a penalty stroke on himself, over objections of the scores—a stroke which would have given him a tie. And in the final round, leading by four strokes with 12 holes to play, he lost five strokes in three holes to Mangrum's birdie and two pars.

Along with all the birdie-eagle shooting there were some other light moments. On the 70th hole, Melvin (Chick) Harbert barely got his ball on the par 4, green with his second shot, and one of the customers who had paid $2.50 to see the stars perform declared he was all to one stroke.

"I could do better than that myself."

So Harbert Obliges

Harbert solemnly took a ball from his bag placed it on the ground, handed the club to the spectator and said:

"I think you can, too. Have a try at it."

The spectator calmly handed the ball on the green where it just trickled by the cup.

"I knew you could do it," Harbert said. "I'd like to have you teach me that shot sometime."

Skip Alexander of Lexington, N. C., wound up third in the tourney with 291, while Bobby Locke of South Africa, last year's winner, shared the next spot with Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C. They tied at 294, 16 under par, the same score with which Locke won in 1947.

SPLITS KEEP O-I FLAG RACE GROOVED

By The Associated Press

Split doubleheaders Sunday kept the Ohio-Indiana league flag race in the groove.

Loop-leading Muncie, Ind., bowed to Lima in yesterday's first game but bounced back in the seven-inning nightcap. The scores were Lima and Muncie 8, Muncie 2 and Lima 1.

Second-place Springfield failed to gain because Newark won the second game of their twin bill. Springfield raced to a 19-8 victory in the afternoon stint but Newark came back to win 9-3 in the night fray.

Portsmouth and Zanesville shared honors in a double bill at Portsmouth, Zanesville taking the opener 8-4, and Portsmouth smothering Zanesville in the second game 15-1 under a 16-hit barrage.

Richmond's up and coming cellar dwellers took both ends of a twin bill in Richmond against Marion, winning the first 5-0 and the second 4-2. Richmond has won nine out of their last 13 games.

FOLLOWS TIP

Many requests for the famous free book, Finer Canned and Frozen Fruits, come from women who first heard of it from enthusiastic friends.

And there are thousands and thousands — experts and beginners alike — who've tried and proved the amazing secret this book imparts. It's just a simple change in your preparation of the canning and freezing syrups, yet it makes a world of improvement in the color, flavor and texture of the fruit you put up.

The big, beautiful—free—1948 edition of Finer Canned and Frozen Fruits gives all the details—valuable tips on rutabaga, jellies, pickles — a whole treasury of valuable information on canning and freezing fruits, PLUS recipes for use.

For a copy, free, send a postcard, giving your name and address to HELEN ROLAND, Dept. 11, P. O. Box 6000, Cleveland, Ohio.
